USF Board of Trustees
June 12, 2008

Issue: Purchasing Regulations

Proposed action: Approval to establish the purchasing bid threshold at $75,000.

Background information:

On March 27, 2008, the Board of Governors approved new Purchasing regulations. The existing Purchasing regulations were repealed. These regulations are immediately effective. The Purchasing Regulation 18.001(2) establishes an increase for the bid threshold to $75,000. Approval by the Board of Trustees to raise the bid threshold at USF to $75,000 is required.

For information purposes, a summary of the changes to the regulations follows:

18.001 Purchasing Regulation:
Consolidates eight (8) USF purchasing regulations into three BOG Regulations.
Establishes an increase for the bid threshold from $50,000 to not to exceed $75,000.
Printing is not subject to Chapter 283.
Removes Direct Owner purchases from Purchasing regulations to Facilities Planning regulations.
University may establish a recycled program.

18.002 Notice and Protest Procedures:
Under the new BOG protest regulation the universities are no longer subject to chapter 120 of the Florida statute for bid protest. The significant change is that the university President is given authority in the decision making related to a protest instead of the state Division of Administrative Hearings.

18.003 Bonding Requirements
No substantial changes. Regulation allows the university to ask for a performance and payment bond without an established threshold.

(b) Planning and coordinating purchases in volume and negotiating and executing agreements and contracts for commodities and contractual services under which the University may make purchases.

(c) Evaluating and approving contracts let by any State of Florida agency or department, the Federal Government, other states, political subdivisions, not-for-profit cooperatives or consortiums, or any independent college or university for the procurement of commodities and contractual services, when it is determined to be cost-effective and in the best interest of the University, to make purchases under contracts let by such other entities.

(d) Awarding contracts for commodities and contractual services to multiple suppliers, if it is determined to be in the best interest of the University. Such awards may be on a university, regional or State University System-wide basis and the contracts may be for multiple years.

(f) Barring any vendor from doing business with the University for demonstrated cause, including previous unsatisfactory performance.

(2) Competitive Solicitation Threshold. Each university Board of Trustees shall establish a competitive solicitation threshold not greater than $75,000 for the purchase of commodities or contractual services.

(a) When only one response is received to the competitive solicitation threshold for commodities or contractual services exceeding $75,000, the University may review the solicitation responses to determine if a second call for a competitive solicitation is in the best interest of the University. If it is determined that a second call would not serve a useful purpose, the University may proceed with the acquisition.

(5) Competitive Solicitation Exceptions. The following types of purchasing actions, and commodities and contractual services purchases are not subject to the competitive solicitation process:

b) Sole Source Purchases. Commodities or contractual services available from a single source may be exempted from the competitive solicitation process.

   (b) Contract Award – The university shall provide notice of a decision or intended decision concerning a solicitation, contract award, or exceptional purchase by electronic posting. (4) Petitions involving disputed issues of material fact shall be referred for a quasi-judicial hearing. The president shall designate an administrative law judge to conduct a hearing in accordance with university procedures. At the conclusion of the hearing, the administrative law judge shall submit a written recommended order to the president. The president shall then issue a preliminary order for final action and notify the firm of such order. The preliminary order of the president shall be final, unless the firm under consideration takes exception to such order; in which event, it may file with the president such exceptions within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of notice of the preliminary order.
